REMARKS
[REDACTED]

1. There was no change in the occupation of an estimated 120 air force personnel and in the activity of the air force depot at Strausberg, Hegermuehlen Strasse. No KVP motor vehicles were observed during the reporting period. Test runs of jet engines of 5 to 10 minutes duration were observed on 14, 15, 17, 22, and 23 January 1954.
2. The following motor vehicle shipments entered and left the depot between 22 December 1953 and 25 January 1954:

Date in	Arriving	Leaving
22			Trucks [REDACTED] loaded with medium-sized crates 25X1
January 7	truck [REDACTED] with trailer [REDACTED] loaded with medium-sized crates; the empty truck and trailer left the installation later on
13			Truck [REDACTED] loaded with medium-sized crates and iron structures 25X1
14			Truck [REDACTED] loaded with new crates, about 80 x 60 x 120 cm, marked "Glass" from the materials dump 25X1
15			Truck [REDACTED] hauled gasoline and storage batteries to the site between the depot and the repair installation where 26 truck chassis were parked in the open, which had already been observed there in November 1953. Subsequently, 13 of the chassis were driven away 25X1

During the reported period, shipments arriving at the railroad station mainly consisted of wood and construction materials which were hauled to the former Strausberg airfield by trucks belonging to the Baununion.²

- 25X1 1. [] Approximately the same amount of motor vehicles were observed previously at military posts both of the Northern and Southern Fighter Corps and of the Ground Attack Corps.
- 25X1 2. [] The construction material observed will be used for the so-called Seehaus on Strausberg airfield. After completion this installation probably is to house the KVP headquarters.
